

The Newsletter

10th March 2010

News & Features

An Ode to Endless Beauty by Sophie Alal

A show at Tulifanya Gallery, Kampala, unites two previous winners of 'Discoveries Young Artists Exhibition' of 2007 and 2009 Ronald 'Ro' Odokotho and Yusuf Kiire Ngula respectively

Sudanese Artist Hamid Ayoub Has Come a Long Way by Phil Jenkins

Hamid Ayoub has travelled far and wide to fulfill his artistic ambition. His colourful canvases tell of a long journey from Sudan to Ottawa, Canada.

Zwelethu Mthethwa's First Monograph to Be Published by a Correspondent

Zwelethu Mthethwa's long awaited first Monograph comprises of stunning large scale works with a fresh approach, marked by colour and a dynamic exchange between the photographer and the photographed.

Dancing Out Of Tune: Democracy & the Development of Arts in Zimbabwe by Godwin Muzari

Artists in Zimbabwe have not been free to express themselves. Their voices have been silenced and information suppressed because they have ruffled the political elites in the regime

Artistas Contribuem Para Justica Social, In Jornal De Angola Por Simão Souindoula

Angola vai participar, de 21 a 24 de Março, em Kwazulu Natal, na África do Sul, numa conferência internacional sobre "Arte e Justiça Social".

"Transitions" Contemporary South African Works on Paper

The exhibition featuring works of Kay Hassan, explores how works of art act as visual narratives and testimonials to the remarkable social and political changes in South Africa at High Museum.

News from external sources

Eastafrican.co.ke: Fragments of Our Passing Lives

Mon 08-03-2010

Showcasing her recent works at the Banana Hill Art Studio in Ngecha, Kiambu, Rehab Shine's exhibition is a showcase of curious and intimate moments of the sprawling landscape and village life she knows so well about.

Artimes.co.za: South African Arts and Culture Minister Responds to Her Critics

Mon 08-03-2010

Female artists snubbed by Minister Lulu Xingwana at an exhibition last year have called her response homophobic and unconstitutional, despite the minister's protests to the contrary.

Bonhams.com: Africa Now Auction At Bonhams

Mon 08-03-2010

The auction includes the very best of post-war and contemporary art from across Africa by artists El Anatsui, Marlene Dumas, William Kentridge, Romauld Hazoume and Ben Enwonwu among others.

Exhibitions

A New Direction for Kenyan Art by AfricanColours.com

One off Contemporary Art Gallery invites you for an open day, 14th March 2010. This will be a rare opportunity to acquire works by established East African artists Richard Kimathi, Timothy Brooke, Peterson Kamwathi, Joseph Bertiers and Fitsum Woldelibanos

Asiko: "Moments" By Akirash Olaniyi Akindiya

"Trait d'union": Rhode Makoumbou In Brazzaville

The River, An Exhibition By Mutaz Elemam

Waters - Veziä - Amanzi

Why I Love You Africa

'Reve' At Almadies

"Roots" At Delta, Harare

The African Renaissance Art At Cafe des Arts, Nairobi

Huda Lutfi's "Making a Man Out Of Him"

"In The Wild", Anwar Sadat's Solo Show In Kampala

Art & Graft Show at Kuona Trust

Residencies

Commonwealth Connections International Arts Residencies

The 11th China Changchun International Sculpture Symposium

Festivals

Call for Applications: The Future Generation Art Prize

Big Fish School Of Digital Film Launches Additional Courses

AfricanColours.com is supported by

Contact us: info@africancolours.com Tel: +254 20 2250373

Find us on Facebook